

WINDSOR CASTLE

Ms Shantel Irwin,
Chief Executive Officer,
Arthritis Action.

The Queen was pleased to receive your kind letter on behalf of the Staff, Members and Supporters of Arthritis Action, sent on the Eightieth Anniversary of the Charity.

Her Majesty was impressed to learn of the range of services offered by the organisation to people living with musculoskeletal conditions, and the support you have provided during the pandemic.

Your thoughtfulness in writing is much appreciated. In return, The Queen sends her warm thanks to all those concerned with the important work of Arthritis Action, and wishes you all a successful 80 Faces Campaign and a most memorable and enjoyable year celebrating this notable milestone in your history.
